

COVID-19 RESPONSE PLAN MARCH 17, 2020

In response to growing concerns locally about the spread of COVID-19, CAHRD is monitoring the evolving information from the Winnipeg Regional Health Authority, and all levels of government. We are implementing a variety of strategies to help prevent/reduce the transmission of COVID-19.

At the time of this bulletin, CAHRD is implementing the following plan. Please note this plan will be continually re-evaluated and updated information will be shared as required. We appreciate your understanding, and look forward to working together to make this difficult time as smooth as we can. Please note that new information is being released and assessed by management on an ongoing basis and we will be updating this plan as needed.

Employment Services

- We have decided to limit in person contact with our clients until after Spring Break (April 5) to help prevent/reduce the spread of COVID- 19. The closure date will be evaluated and assessed and updated as needed.
- Staff will be in the office and available to clients via phone and email, assisting clients to the best of their ability via these channels. Contact information is below

Education and Training Departments

Aboriginal Community Campus / Neeginan College / Neeginan Learning and Literacy

- We have decided to cancel classes on site until after Spring Break to help prevent/reduce the spread of COVID- 19, students are expected to work from home. The closure date will be evaluated and assessed and updated as needed.
- Teaching and Instructional staff will be preparing course work for their students. This will be done in electronic as well as hard copy (paper) format. These packages will be available to students by WEDNESDAY, MARCH 18, 2020.
- For students who have access to a computer and internet, work can be shared and collected with students in this format.
- For students who do not have access to a computer and internet, teaching and instructional staff will prepare correspondence packages, complete with detailed instructions, answer keys (where applicable), course readings etc.
- We are looking into various 'apps' to allow for immediate communication with students who might need help with their course work and will share this with you once we have it set up.
- All students are asked to contact the school to let us know which format you will require your course work; as well as to provide us with your current contact information and email address.
